Credit Report
Instructions for getting a copy of your credit report

Getting access to a copy of your credit report is a great way to see what the banks and other credit providers see when they assess you as a finance applicant. You can also set up credit alerts that will automatically alert you whenever a credit enquiry is made against your name.

To access your free credit report go to the following website and follow the links:

mycreditfile.com.au/products-services/my-credit-file

If you would like to get access to your credit file sooner and also set up ongoing alerts go to the following website and follow the links:
